

Enriching lives through the arts

The Chairman and Committee of THE ARTS SOCIETY SHREWSBURY

warmly invite you to a Celebration of the Golden Jubilee of The Arts Society at the Blackburn Theatre, Prestfelde School, Shrewsbury, SY2 6NZ

on Saturday 19th May 2018

6.30 pm Sparkling Wine and Canapés

7.30 pm Lecture by Jane Choy-Thurlow of the Mauritshuis, The Hague, the Netherlands

“Rembrandt: Bohemian or Businessman, Romantic or Rebel?”

Rembrandt is considered by many to be Holland’s greatest artist and the equal of Mozart, Shakespeare and Michelangelo. Unlike van Gogh, the other great Dutch artist, Rembrandt has not left much written material explaining his views on art, but what he has left is a unique visual autobiography in his self-portraits which he did from the age of 20 to 63, the year of his death. This lecture will use the self-portraits as a thread through his life and with his other masterpieces explore the man and what, why, and how he painted. Was he indeed a businessman or bohemian, rebel or romantic?

“Quite simply, the best NADFAS lecture I have ever been to.”

A member of our Golden Age of Dutch Art tour who heard Jane Choy-Thurlow’s lecture on “The Mauritshuis” in 2016.
